Officials from Yellowstone County and the City of Billings to Declare the City/County Montana's Trailhead in February

Billings, MT, February 2, 2009: Billings and Yellowstone County will be officially proclaimed Montana's Trailhead this month. On Tuesday, February 3rd, 2009, Yellowstone County Commissioners will do so during their weekly meeting at the Yellowstone County Courthouse. County Commissioners Bill Kennedy, Jim Reno and John Ostlund, who are on the Brand Billings committee, have played vital roles in the Brand Billings process. Their support will continue with the official declaration during Tuesday's meeting.

City of Billings Mayor Ron Tussing will officially proclaim Billings as Montana's Trailhead during the Billings City Council meeting on Monday, February 9th. This weekly meeting begins at 6:30 p.m. and takes place at City Hall. The proclamation is on the agenda. Mayor Tussing and the Billings City Council members will make the official announcement. Mayor Tussing is also on the Brand Billings committee.
