Inspired documentary exposes dangerous deceptions surrounding America's oil "addiction"

For Immediate Release

Billings, MT, March 20, 2012: The Billings Chamber of Commerce/Convention and Visitors Bureau is pleased to welcome filmmaker Mark Mathis to Billings for his premiere Montana showing of "SpOILed: The Movie." The film seeks to expose the many deceptions surrounding oil, calling attention to problems and solutions. Prepare to be surprised, angered and moved to become part of the national conversation about petroleum.

Newsman turned filmmaker Mark Mathis spent most of his adult life challenging conventional thinking. His resume includes a ten year career as a news reporter and anchor, talk radio host, owner of a media training business, founder of an energy-education non-profit, author of "Feeding the Media Beast," public speaker, and activist for good government.

The Billings showings of "spOILed" will occur at the Carmike Wynnsong 10. The Billings Chamber of Commerce/Convention and Visitors Bureau encourages any interested member of the business community to join us for the 2:30 p.m. showing on March 30th at Wynnsong 10. While Mr. Mathis will entertain Q & A after each showing, the dialogue following this showing will be relevant to the energy industry in our region and its impact on our business community. Standard movie ticket prices apply. The film's running time is 90 minutes.

Showtimes are as follows:

March 30th through April 1st, 2012, at 2:30 p.m., 5:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.
